Domini Social Equity Fund	DSEFX		Large Blend	We seek to avoid investing in companies that do business in Sudan in these cases: 1)The company's activities directly benefit the government of Sudan. This includes companies that pay oil and mining royalties to the Sudanese government, as well as those that build roads, develop infrastructure in government strongholds, or provide assistance to government agencies. 2)The company offers substantial indirect benefits to the government of Sudan, or, in our view, is otherwise complicit in human rights abuses in Sudan. This includes companies that have substantial operations or customers in government stronghold areas of Sudan and therefore help to provide a stable economic environment that supports the government in its oppressive policies.	Seeks to avoid companies that derive significant revenues by manufacture of tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, gambling equipment, or ownership of gambling enterprises.
